

Professional Training Course in ESG Investing and Green Financing

Sustainable finance has evolved and is a relevant topic on the global finance agenda. Following the latest global trend, successfully incorporating environmental, social or governance (ESG) considerations in financial decisions significantly influences an individual/ a corporation's financial performance. How is the ESG strategy being developed today? What are the impact investments? What are greenwashing? What to be aware of on the potential financial, legal risk, risk management and dispute resolution in ESG and Green finance?
